

Anuj Shah

COUNSEL

Anuj Shah is a Counsel at DMD Advocates with a decade of experience specializing in Litigation and Dispute Resolution, Insolvency and Bankruptcy Law. He has advised and represented Resolution Professionals, Companies, Banks, Financial Institutions, and Resolution Applicants before various fora. He also has experience in matters involving mergers and acquisitions for both Indian and multinational entities.

Having a background in Litigation and Dispute Resolution, Anuj has extensive experience in handling civil and commercial disputes across various sectors such as infrastructure, mining, automobile, hospitality etc. His expertise includes representing and advising entities having complex commercial disputes, shareholders' issues, and contentious matters related to Civil, Company and Competition law. Anuj also has experience in handling arbitrations and related litigation, as well as matters pertaining to consumer protection law. He regularly appears before the Supreme Court, various High Courts, the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal, the National Company Law Tribunal, National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and other regulatory bodies, including the Competition Commission of India.

Contact Details |

Email: anuj.shah@dmd.law
Mobile: +91 9818188109

Practice Areas

Dispute Resolution

Academic Qualifications

- B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), Amity Law School, Noida